

GREATER GLENDALE

SOME SUGGESTIONS AS TO STREET NUMBERING, LIGHTING, BUILDING

March 1st, 1918.
To the Editor of the Glendale News.

Dear Sir:
Excuse the liberty I take, encroaching on your valuable space. I don't wish to appear as monopolizing too much, but I have at heart a greater and better Glendale.

Regarding the numbering and centralization of our city, I am in full accord that Brand and Broadway be the dividing line north, east, south and west. Blocks of 50 or 100, so that when a person asks you where is 700 so and so, oh, just walk seven blocks, or as the case might be, north, east, south or west. Metal signs on the lamps with number of block north, east, south or west would be serviceable and also inexpensive. Have all parkway trees, palms and others, trimmed at not less than 7 or 8 feet from the ground, so as to prevent foot passengers having their faces or eyesight damaged. (Query: Ever have your face caught with a sharp palm leaf? The writer has.)

Make all lights of the standard size, like Kenwood street, so the light falls on the sidewalks and so discloses any prowlers or possibly holdups, instead of the high ones which merely light up the sky and roadway.

Now I'm going to get onto another vital subject and that is, why we have so many vacant stores, and what I consider the best remedy to get them all occupied and thriving business places. Let the owners of all the vacant lots on Broadway get busy and build apartment houses, say, from one, two to three rooms, with housekeeping privileges. Broadway being the center of all the places of worship, banks, stores, etc., easy access to cars, etc., these places would rent like ripe cherries. I know, because there is not a day passes but what one or more people come into my store inquiring for apartments for rent, and when these apartments become an assured fact, the inmates would then patronize the various business places nearest to them for their various wants. This would mean the occupancy of all vacant stores. I never saw so many visitors, strangers, tourists in the city for the winter in any previous year as this.

It's a mighty nice place to live, as regards climate, nearness to Los Angeles, beaches, mountains, and is mighty well governed. Reasonably priced public utilities such as water, light, etc., all tend to attract a very desirable people.

I noticed a splendid system in Burbank at the intersection of the main streets: a small pedestal lamp with red globe to light at night so as to prevent any traffic cutting corners on the wrong side. This could be followed out in Glendale, say, at Doran and Brand, First, Second, Third, Broadway, Fifth, Colorado boulevard, Park avenue, Tropic avenue, San Fernando road, residents to plant flowers in all parkways, poppies, geraniums, etc. Then we would have a City Beautiful.

Yours truly,

FRANK BOOTH.

1005 W. Broadway, Glendale.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

A birthday surprise party was tendered Mrs. A. B. Morrison at her pretty home, 1327 Colorado boulevard, on Tuesday afternoon last.

The ladies brought their knitting of course, and their tating, and sat around the bright, open fire, discussing the events of the day, old times, in a most delightful, enjoyable way.

Mrs. Morrison, while in the pastorate with her late husband, Rev. Dr. Morrison, made many friends and acquaintances who still hold her in most kindly regard, as was shown by the presence of so many of them in her home and the gifts of books and flowers, cards and congratulations over the telephone that poured in. Refreshments on the Hoover line were served. Those present were Mesdames Adams, Robinson, Jones, Nesbit, Pixley, et al., too numerous to mention.

FINISH INDEXING

Miss Ida Waite and the ladies assisting her at the headquarters of the Exemption Board Friday afternoon expected to finish the task for which they volunteered some weeks ago, before the day closed. About thirty teachers from the Glendale schools, under the direction of Miss Waite, have prepared index cards for the nearly 2000 questionnaires which have been filed with the board. It has been dull, monotonous work, but highly important to the government, and has been a patriotic service which should be appreciated.

RESCIND PERMIT

LOMITA AVENUE TREE LOVERS PROTEST AGAINST REMOVAL OF TREES

There was an adjourned meeting of the Board of Trustees of the city of Glendale held in the city hall, Friday evening, March 1, mainly for the purpose of hearing the discussion concerning the permit granted to Clinton L. Booth to remove trees at the northwest corner of Lomita avenue and Brand boulevard. At the opening of the meeting communications were read from Miss Lillian Eaton of Long Beach, T. W. Preston of Adams street, Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Gray of Santa Barbara, and Mrs. F. E. Mansfield, all protesting against the removal of the trees in question.

The stories seemed to run about like this: At a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees on February 21, a communication was read from Clinton L. Booth, in which he asked permission to remove two eucalyptus trees at the northwest corner of Lomita and Brand boulevard, giving as his reason that it was his intention to erect a business building on the lots adjacent. The Board of Trustees granted the permit with the understanding that the trees were not to be removed until the application was made for the building permit. As soon as the proceedings of the board reached the ears of the residents on Lomita avenue, H. S. Duffield, who resides on that street, communicated with City Manager T. W. Watson, asking that the trees be not removed until the people living on that street be given a hearing at the next regular meeting of the Board. Mr. Duffield also approached Trustee Jackson on the subject and asked him to confer with the city manager and make sure that the trees would not be molested until after the following Thursday evening, when a committee from the Lomita park section would enter a protest before the Board. Trustee Jackson informed Mr. Duffield that he had taken the question up with Mr. Watson and that nothing would be done until the citizens were given a hearing.

A continuance of the story relates that early Wednesday morning people living near the corner of Brand and Lomita avenue were awakened by the sound of axes and soon it was discovered that two choppers had commenced to remove the trees. Haste was made to notify the city officials and have the work stopped, but somehow the municipal machinery worked slowly and soon extra choppers were added to the number of tree destroyers and it was eleven o'clock that forenoon before City Manager Watson could make sure that he had a legal right to interfere with the work in progress. By this time the roots of one of the trees had been greatly mutilated and the people of Lomita park were greatly displeased. A remonstrance was prepared, objecting to the procedure and soon several hundred names were signed to a petition asking the Board of Trustees to rescind the permit granted to Mr. Booth and thus save the trees.

That petition was presented to the honorable Board of Trustees at Friday evening's meeting. James Neill, representing the objectors to the destruction of the trees, made an eloquent address in which he drew pictures expressing the attachment the people of Glendale have for these giant landmarks. He called attention to the aged people who are spending their declining years beneath the shade of these trees, he referred very pathetically to the children who have spent many happy hours playing under Nature's canopy and intimated that the birds had even ceased their singing since the woodman's axe had been heard in the grove.

The meeting was largely attended and from the enthusiasm expressed it seemed that by far the majority favored preserving the trees.

Atty. J. F. McBryde, representing Mr. Booth, made a very concise and calm statement putting forth the business side of the question and assured the trustees that Mr. Booth had no other aim in view than to do that which would benefit conditions of the section of Glendale under consideration, and that he had secured a permit for the removal of the trees in a legal manner and before beginning their removal he had also secured a permit for the erection of a business building. His contractor advised him that it would not be safe to erect a building of the character he had planned so long as the trees were so near the building and the roots would be allowed to interfere with the substantial condition of the walls.

City Manager Watson explained to those present that after the building permit was granted by the Board it

NYANZA BATTLES WITH SUBMARINE

AMERICAN STEAMER PROBABLY SINKS U-BOAT AFTER BATTLING HER FOR TWO AND ONE-HALF HOURS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Battling with a German submarine for two and a half hours, the American steamer Nyanza's armed guard probably sunk her U-boat opponent, according to the report of Chief Gunner's Mate Benjamin H. Groves, made public today.

Peppered by shrapnel from two submarine guns, the Nyanza maneuvered skillfully while the armed guard coolly and skillfully answered the attack. Finally the American steamer coming within range of the submersible fired four shells and evidently sank her opponent.

GERMAN INVADERS NEAR PETROGRAD

RUSSIAN CAPITAL IS STRIPPING FOR ACTION TO DRIVE BACK THE TEUTON ARMY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PETROGRAD, March 2.—Petrograd is facing her "battle of the Marne." The Germans are three hours from Luga (100 miles southwest of Petrograd), only five hours from Petrograd. The city is stripping for action. A special commission is clearing out the useless civilians except the able-bodied trench diggers. The Germans refuse to give up hostilities before Monday, Russian peace delegates reported today.

"We will order nothing given up without fighting," the Russians say. "Our last word is that we must make an effort to drive back the Germans as far as possible to the west." In the event of German occupation of Petrograd the capitol will be moved to Moscow.

AMERICANS HOLD THEIR OWN

CALLED UPON TO MEET THE SEVEREST TEST OF THE WAR THEY GIVE THEIR ADVERSARIES BLOW FOR BLOW

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 2.—American troops in France have probably fought the hottest skirmish of the war with Germany, "and fought like devils," is the belief of army men here awaiting the official report showing the number of dead, injured and captured in the German raid near Toul yesterday.

Out of the snow swept wastes of no-man's land the picture of the American boys fighting until their guns ceased and then using their fists on the invaders until the sector was free of them, brought a glow of pride to army officials here.

Meeting the shock of 240 trained troops—the severest test the Sammies have been called upon to endure—they held their own like veterans and gave the Germans blow for blow, and left on the ground before the American salient a gruesome picture of the Teuton cost.

There is no doubt in the minds of officials that the seasoned and highly trained soldiers of Gen. Pershing are now ready to hold their own in that part of the great German drive destined to fall to the American troops.

ORIENTAL TROOPS GO TO RUSSIA

JAPANESE AND CHINESE TROOPS BEING DISPATCHED TO SIBERIA AND MANCHURIA REPORTS STATE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, March 2.—Japan and China are dispatching troops to Asiatic Russia, the former to Siberia and the latter to Manchuria, a Tien Tsin newspaper announced Wednesday, according to a dispatch to the Evening News received today.

MAY COMMUTE MOONEY'S SENTENCE

STATE OFFICIALS BELIEVE GOVERNOR STEPHENS WILL CONSIDER PRESIDENT'S INTEREST IN CASE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SACRAMENTO, March 2.—That Governor Stephens will commute the death sentence of Thomas J. Mooney, who was denied a new trial by the Supreme Court yesterday and who as a result faces the gallows on a charge of complicity in the San Francisco Preparedness Parade dynamiting outrage, is believed by officials here today. It is thought the governor will consider President Wilson's interest in Mooney's behalf.

BERLIN WAR OFFICE REPORTS ATTACK AT ST. MIHIEL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

BERLIN, March 2.—German forces attacked the American trenches in the St. Mihiel sector and took 12 prisoners, inflicting heavy casualties, the German official statement declared. "North-east of Siechprey we penetrated the enemy trenches and inflicted severe casualties," the report stated.

ANOTHER AMERICAN IN CANADIAN CASUALTY LIST

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

OTTAWA, Canada, March 2.—C. K. Bowden of Willows Ranch, Cal., is included among the Canadian casualties announced today.

CURRENT HAPPENINGS

MRS. COPELAND IMPROVING—JUNIOR FUNDS GROWING—BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Through inquiry at the Glendale Sanitarium it has been ascertained that Mrs. Tillie Copeland, who was injured in an automobile accident on Friday, is much better this morning. She regained consciousness about midnight. The lump on her forehead is greatly reduced and she no longer complains of it. Her suffering now seems to proceed from her left wrist, in which a bone is broken, and from her hip on that side and her back, which are painful when she moves. The X-ray failed to reveal any broken bones other than the wrist bone, and attendants hope her injuries will prove to be less serious than were first indicated.

JUNIOR FUNDS GROWING

A complete report of the baseball game between teachers and pupils of the Intermediate School has been furnished, which gives interesting details as follows:

The Junior Red Cross of the Intermediate School became richer by $13.14 Wednesday afternoon, when the faculty of the school played a picked team from the three A 8 classes.

The admission was five cents and then, of course, there were popcorn, peanuts, and pink lemonade sold by teachers, which also helped greatly to swell the funds.

You may be sure that when it was announced that the teachers were to play baseball, the tickets sold fast, and at no time during the game was there a lull, for after the first strike cheering never ceased.

The lineup was as follows: Faculty: Mr. Glanford, Mr. Harkness, Miss Scholz, Miss Noble, Miss F. Jackson, Miss McPherson, Miss Malory, Mr. Lehman, Mr. White; School: Joseph Psenner, James McGowan, Fay Butler, Emily Verdugo, Dorothy Cotton, Martha Meyer, Theodore Dietzel, Lowry Truitt, Edward Thompson, Dorothy Peart, Lucile Nelson.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

H. B. Goodrich, of 540 Central avenue, was treated to a birthday surprise by his wife Friday evening. It began with a six o'clock chicken dinner which was patriotic in that it conformed strictly to the Hoover requirements. All the guests were relatives of Mr. or Mrs. Goodrich, those who enjoyed the dinner being Mr. and Mrs. A. Pascoe and their son Mart, of Whittier, the aunt, uncle and cousin of Mrs. Goodrich, and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jensen. Following the dinner her aunts, Mrs. King and Mrs. Johnson, and their daughters, Marie King and Gladys Johnson, also her sister, Mrs. Owens, and daughters Edith and Bernice, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rimpau of Hollywood, who are cousins, came for the evening, during which the guests amused themselves with games, for which prizes were given.

THE RED CROSS STATEMENT

Elsewhere in this paper appears a very complete financial statement of the Glendale Chapter of the Red Cross which should be of interest to its many readers and patrons. This represents much work on the part of Vice Chairman Lawshe, who spent many weeks putting the books of the organization in good, business-like condition. He says there are no unpaid local bills against the chapter and that its only indebtedness is to the national Red Cross for materials purchased. These liabilities are more than offset by the assets of the chapter in cash on hand and pledged subscriptions, many of which are due on March first, and the collection of which will be begun by Mr. Lawshe the coming week. It is a good showing, and back of it is a tremendous amount of work done by the women of Glendale.

ANOTHER INDUCTION

James Lawrence Soister, who for some time has been in San Francisco, but who enlisted in the army by special induction through the Glendale Exemption Board, was examined and accepted by the San Francisco Medical Board, and his papers have been forwarded from here. He goes to the 319th Engineers at Camp Fremont, where his brother, Ernest Lynn Soister, was sent by this board about ten days ago, so the two boys will be together, and the local board will have the credit for two soldiers furnished the army.

WEATHER FORECAST. Fair to night and Sunday. Northeasterly winds.

NEW DEPARTMENT

JUNIOR RED CROSS COMMITTEE ON CONSERVATION OPENS QUARTERS

Headquarters have been opened at 914 Broadway, opposite the Fire House, for the Junior Red Cross Committee on Conservation for French and Belgian Relief. Mrs. Ben Nichols, President of the High School P. T. A., is chairman, and other members of the committee will be appointed in the near future.

In the window is a most interesting display of small garments manufactured from scraps of material, which is a lesson in thrift. On entering the headquarters, a long table is discovered, on which are piled salvage stuffs in the way of scraps of new cloth and old, discarded garments of all sorts.

The committee plans to keep the headquarters open every afternoon, and it has need just now of chairs, tables and an old trunk or two.

It will be the work of the committee to cut and otherwise prepare the work to be done by the members of the Junior Red Cross. This work can be done at the headquarters or at the homes of committee members.

Pieces of new outing flannel, which could be combined to make warm garments for babies, are much wanted, or any kind of material that could be used to make dresses for children from six to twelve years of age. Woolen goods is desired; even if moth-eaten it can be used for an interlining; small thick pieces can be used for booties.

RED CROSS WORK

Friday some of the members of the Surgical Dressings Department were busy at sewing machines manufacturing a substitute for tape to be used on bandages. Long strips of muslin were hemmed.

Bandages have occupied the attention of the workers at headquarters in the Surgical Dressings Department a goodly portion of the time this week. The Thursday workers were Mrs. Edgar Pack, instructor, Mesdames E. W. Towle, C. L. Peckham, Ruth Taggart, Carrie E. Matling, Millard H. Moody, W. R. Thomas, C. L. Bullard, A. L. Lawshe, W. R. Cleveland, W. L. Andrews, R. E. Downing, W. H. Boothby, O. Spencer, J. P. Lilly, James W. Pearson, Miss Mary Blackburn. The output was 50 abdominal bandages, two triangulars, 13 scultetus, two T and 26 4-tailed bandages.

Friday, Mrs. W. H. Boothby was the instructor. Those who worked with her were Mesdames C. L. Peckham, C. L. Parker, J. F. Hearnshaw, A. B. Rosencrans, B. H. Ward, George A. Whitaker, Scott F. Whitaker, Laura Fortunato, C. Vern Horner, M. E. Brode, C. E. Harlan, Stephen Packer, H. A. La Gross, L. Papineau, H. R. Boyer, Harry Petty, O. T. Walker, Vera M. Grant, R. C. Lane, I. A. Flint, Fred Myton.

Mrs. Griffith and her assistants were busy manufacturing leather vests for aviators Friday out of old gloves and other scraps of soft leather. They were turning out work which was the admiration of all beholders because, in spite of the fact that the pieces were very irregular in size, shape and texture, the applied result was perfectly smooth and even.

Ladies who worked with Miss Griffith were Miss Rose Yokel, Mesdames George A. Whitaker, Laura Fortunato, Charles Shattuck, Scott F. Whitaker, G. E. Whittemore, Fred Weisenheimer.

The Knitting Department of the Red Cross reports a good day last Thursday with a fine number of finished garments returned and a number of new applicants for yarn. The next shipment to San Francisco will be made March 5th and it is hoped that as many finished garments as possible will be turned in next Monday. Knitters are reminded to bring their knitting bags to headquarters to save the time consumed in wrapping their consignments of yarn. The department is open as heretofore on Mondays and Thursdays from 1 to 5 p. m., and if garments are left at any other time, the name and address of the knitters should be securely attached because without that it is impossible to get the proper credit.

Mrs. Suel J. Spaulding, of 121 W. Park avenue, on Thursday entertained at luncheon a group of old friends, all of whom are or have been residents of Des Moines, Iowa. The guest list included Mrs. J. Thomas and Mrs. Leo O'Flaherty, of the Iowa city named, who are spending the winter in Ocean Park, and Mesdames C. F. Parker and C. E. Harlan of Glendale. Hyacinths and carnations were used in decoration and the affair was quite informal.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, MARCH 2, 1918.

From everywhere comes the cry of a scarcity of farm help in the middle west. The young men who were drafted from the farms last fall will be needed at their accustomed places this spring, but they will not be on hand. Steps should be taken to release them from army training and allow them to take up farm work again. Thousands of acres in every state will go uncultivated if more competent help is not gotten in time to put in the spring crops. The producing of grain for ourselves and our allies is a mighty big job, and now is the time to enroll men on the farms and not wait until it is too late.

Wake up, ye men who have power to do things, or the time will come in a few months when vast fields will be uncultivated.

Members of the American Red Cross serving abroad will have to learn to execute an American salute "smartly" if they want to continue in the service of humanity. Incidentally they will have to study hard to execute an American salute per instructions issued by the Commissioner for Europe.

Glendale LaundryANNOUNCE JUMP IN AUTO
PRICES

On February 21, the Ford Motor Company announced an increase in the retail prices of its touring cars, runabouts, and chassis of $90 for the first two mentioned and $75 for the chassis. The new prices of these models are f. o. b. Detroit, touring $450, runabout $435, chassis $400. The prices of the other models, sedan, coupe, town car and ton truck are unchanged.

An old resident of Detroit, Mr. David A. Moore, who for ten years has made Los Angeles his home, remarked to a friend on automobile row: "What a bargain the Ford is at the new prices." He then went on to relate the story of how he bought his first (and present) Ford car, whose motor number is 77. It was in 1908, in Detroit; the car cost him $850, without top, windshield or headlights. He drove it across the continent to Los Angeles, and the old car is still in daily service—"good for ten years more," said Mr. Moore.

As is well known, the increase in Ford prices was occasioned by the entry of the Ford Motor Company into the field of war work. The latter is becoming so important that the less essential work of turning out Ford cars must be reduced, or, if necessary, crowded out altogether. High raw material costs are another factor which until now the company has coped with by developing economies in manufacturing and distributing their product. With some, there may be a temptation, under such trying conditions, to cheapen the quality; but Ford owners—2,500,000 of them—know that Ford quality is better now than ever. And it will be made better continually.

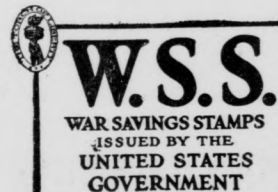

Whenever the prices of Fords have been lowered, those whose orders were on file at the time were taken care of at the new prices. It is only logical to expect, at this time, that the same rule would obtain.

CO-OPERATE WITH GARDENERS

Mrs. Ella W. Richardson, president of the Glendale Vacant Lot Producers, has received an interesting proposition from the Columbia Dehydrating Corporation, now organizing. The company proposes to contract for the surplus products of the home gardens, assuring the grower of a market and stimulating increased production. As this is in line with the work of the Vacant Lot Producers, the proposition appeals strongly to the gardeners. The products to be dried by the new company are string beans, beets, cabbage, cauliflower, lima beans, potatoes, spinach, sweet potatoes, turnips and nearly all kinds of fruit.

REGISTRATION

Attention of citizens is called to the fact that in order to vote at the coming municipal election on April 8th, all voters must have registered since Dec. 31st, 1917. The last day for this registration will be March 7th.

For any election occurring before April 1st the old register may be used.

There are a number of Deputy Registrars in Glendale; among the most centrally located are the following:

Mrs. Bott, at Glendale Book Store,
413 S. Brand Blvd.

Mrs. Myton, Branch Postoffice, Glendale and Broadway.

Miss Smith, Bank of Glendale, Brand
Boulevard Branch.

P. F. Rentfrow, barber, 409 S. Brand

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. William Hutchinson, of 1726
Myrtle street, was hostess at a party given Friday evening to celebrate the fourteenth birthday of her daughter Constance, at which the following guests were present: Helen Middlecauff, Lucile Nelson, Faith
Kennedy, Katherine Delgado, Mary
Hustardo, Rowland Newman, Robert
Hughes, Frank Marsh, Paul Hutchinson, Sidney Chambers, Stanley Slausis, Princess Anita, Captain Zimmer, Dorothy Hutchinson and Dorothy Hunt. The two Dorothys assisted Mrs. Hutchinson in receiving and entertaining the company. A yellow and green color scheme was carried out in decorations, with the brighter note of American flags.
Games, music and dancing were the diversions of the evening, and at its close delicious refreshments, which included sandwiches, chocolate, candy and a beautiful birthday cake illuminated with yellow candles, were served.

WORK DRIVE

Ladies of the Richardson Tract in Glendale's Gateway have been doing fine work in connection with the work drive of the local auxiliary. They have held repeated meetings at one home or another, and have accumulated a product highly creditable.
Ladies who have worked in this way
are: Mesdames J. A. Stone, Roy Hornung, Edwin Virden, L. E. Richardson, Merritt Ludden, Joseph Ashton, C. L. Thedaker, George Adams, Louis Baker, Charles Klamm, Leroy
Blair and A. J. Becker. The hostesses were: Mesdames Stone, Adams, Hornung, Ludden and Becker.

Mrs. M. O. Ryan, of 1322 Hawthorne street, has had the pleasure of entertaining her daughter, Mrs.
Evelyn R. Wheeler, who arrived from Bakersfield in time to enjoy the Elks' Ball.

NEVER

was there a time when people were so much interested in securing a sure income for old age as they are today. The uncertainty of values in nearly every form of property makes men turn to the tried and true Life Insurance Company for this protection.

Nothing in this line, that I have ever seen, is equal to "the Provident's" endowments maturing at 60, 65 or 70, with five optional settlements. There is absolutely nothing left to be desired. The option can be selected at any time—either before or at maturity, to suit the need as it has arisen. Of course, if death occurs prematurely, the income for the family or dependents is provided and fully paid for. Nothing can equal it. Talk to me about it.

ANNUAL MEETING

The Glendale W. C. T. U. held its annual meeting and election of officers Friday, from 10 to 5 o'clock, in the parlors of the First Methodist church of this city, a box luncheon being served at noon in the dining hall of the edifice. The attendance was excellent, and much enthusiasm was manifested.

Very gratifying reports were presented by the officers and by the superintendents, especially the superintendent of work for soldiers and sailors, Mrs. Ruby Smart, also the press report, given by Mrs. Jennie Mottern. One of the exhibits in connection with this report was a facsimile of the Glendale Evening News,
all its columns being filled with printed announcements and reports of the work in the City Union and some other temperance matter, all clipped from the columns of the News. At the close of this report a very hearty vote of thanks was given Mr. A. T. Cowan for the publicity he has given this Union.

All the officers were elected to succeed themselves for the coming year, the list being as follows: President, Mrs. Ruby Smart; Vice President, Mrs. Mary L. Moore; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Jennie Mottern; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Louise Morton; Treasurer, Mrs. Nannie
Palmer; Asst. Treas., Mrs. Flora
Lemon; Y. P. B. Secretary, Mrs.
Katherine Rowe; L. T. L. Secretary,
Mrs. A. M. Brooks.

Two visitors were present from out of town, Mrs. Good from Los Gatos
and Mrs. Chute from Nova Scotia, Canada.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE MEETING

A Domestic Science meeting of the High School Parent-Teacher association will be held Monday afternoon at 3:15 in the Domestic Science and Art rooms at the High School. Mrs.
Clark, chairman of Domestic Science,
will have the meeting in charge. Miss Lantz, Domestic Science teacher in the High School, will tell what the Domestic Science department offers the students. The principal address of the afternoon will be given by Mrs. Hazzard.

WELL PLEASED

John Horsch of 243 Glendale avenue has asked us to remove from our columns his advertisement of a four-room house to rent, because he has secured a satisfactory tenant. He declares himself much pleased with his investment.

LIBRARY INSPECTION

Glendale City Trustees, its Library
Board, Library officials, the ex-
Tropico City Trustees and Library Board, and all who were connected in any way with the Tropico Library in the past, have been invited to an informal reception and inspection to be held next Monday evening in the city building at the corner of Brand and Tropico avenues. A brief program will be given in the assembly hall, and then the new quarters of the library will be visited and admired.

Yesterday in mentioning the accident at the corner of Broadway and Kenwood it was said a report gave the P. E. car a speed of 90 miles per hour. The figures should have read 60 miles per hour, according to the report.

FIRE

All fire insurance is based on average losses. If your house does not burn up, you have the satisfaction of knowing that the premium you pay helps the other fellow who does have a loss.

The insurance company handles this co-operative business for you, and takes a small average profit for guaranteeing that when you do have a loss,
it will have collected enough
from a large number of more fortunate ones to enable it to pay your loss.

For this service the company
must collect enough to meet the losses and make a reasonable profit. If a company unduly cuts prices, you may rest assured that it must take advantage of every technicality to recoup its losses. You can not expect liberal treatment
when you are unfortunate enough to need its help most.

I can furnish you insurance that is too cheap if you want it, but always advise my clients to pay a fair price and be sure they are getting real protection.

The companies I represent are not only among the strongest and most liberal, but have never failed to back me up in quoting reasonable rates to my customers.

did not lie within his power to interfere with the work so long as the intent of the permit was being carried out. He said it was not his intention to have any one understand that there would be nothing done in the way of removing the trees until after another meeting of the Board.

Trustee Jackson made a statement that it was his understanding that Mr. Watson promised to have the work of removing the trees postponed until after the meeting of the Board.

J. S. Thompson, president of the Board, said he became very active upon the question as soon as he was notified, which was about 10 o'clock Wednesday.

Many persons spoke upon this question, among whom were H. S. Duffield, Mrs. Ella Richardson, Rev. George Eley, S. C. Packer, Mrs. Goodell, all favoring the preserving of the trees. O. A. Lane advised the Board of the danger of the trees as many of them now stand and suggested that those not in a safe condition be removed. After due consideration a motion prevailed to the effect that the permit granted to Mr. Booth on February 21 be rescinded. A motion also prevailed that a competent man be employed to examine the condition of the two trees that were in part removed and all possible efforts be used to save them and if in the judgment of this person they can not be saved, the matter is to be referred to the city Trustees.

If treaties are going to be binding hereafter no wonder the kaiser is a little slow about signing up.
